BUBBLES

Feeling fizzy? We've got options!

Chardonnay, Pinot Bianco, Pinot Nero // Ricci Curbastro [110]
Franciacorta Brut, Lombardy, Italy NV

Italian sparkler with a little swagger. Lively bubbles, crisp green apple, citrus peel, and a touch of toasted almond. Fresh, elegant, and endlessly celebratory. BIN#1005

Chardonnay // Laurent-Perrier, Blanc de Blancs, Brut Nature [215]
Champagne, France NV

Exceptionally elegant with a fine perlage. Expect a tart, super-mineral sparkler with a lengthy finish and breathtaking minerality. Perfect with anything fried! BIN#1004

Verdicchio // Sartarelli, Brut Spumante [68]
Le Marche, Italy NV

One of Le Marche's most focused Verdicchio estates, making nothing but this single grape. Five to six months on the lees gives this sparkler real texture: green apple, lemon verbena, citrus peel, and the signature bitter almond finish that only Verdicchio delivers. BIN #2034

Meunier // Laherte Freres "Rosé de Meunier" [155]
Champagne, France NV

An extra-brut, weightless style of rosé with notes of red berry, mint, & chalky notes made by seventh generation winemaker Aurélien Laherte with a devotion to organic & biodynamic viticulture. BIN #1009

BUBBLES

Feeling fizzy? We've got options!

Chenin Blanc // Le Rocher des Violettes "Pétillant Originel" [82]
Montlouis-sur-Loire, France 2021

Xavier Weisskopf founded this certified organic estate in 2005 on plots averaging 80 years old, the oldest planted in 1891. Made by méthode ancestrale. Perfumed apple, crushed chalk, pear, and jasmine with a fine, persistent mousse and a dry, precise finish. BIN# 2035

Vinhão, Alvarelhão// Aphros "Phaunus" Pét-Nat Rosé [77]
Minho, Portugal 2022

Bright, zesty, and bone dry, this naturally fermented pét-nat brims with wild strawberry, rhubarb, and a touch of sea spray. BIN# 1008

Lambrusco di Sorbara + // Angol d'Amig "Scaramusc" [62]
Lambrusco dell'Emilia, Modena, Italy NV

A blend of three Lambrusco varieties, this is Modena in a bottle. Bottle-refermented with native yeasts in Marco Lanzotti's terracotta jars. Dark and brooding with sour cherry, bramble, dried herbs, and savory tannins. BIN# 1003

Lambrusco Grasparossa // La Battagliola [75]
Emilia-Romagna, Italy 2024

Dark, juicy, and irresistibly fun - this sparkling red bursts with black cherry, ripe blackberry, and a hint of cocoa. Silky bubbles, gentle tannins, and just enough bite make it playful, food-loving, and dangerously drinkable. BIN# 1002

ROSE

Channeling summertime sunshine & ocean breezes

Grenache, Mourvedre, Syrah // Stolpman Vineyards [62]
"Love You Bunches", Santa Barbara, California 2024

Joyful, whole-cluster rosé made with minimal intervention, showing fresh strawberry, watermelon rind, and a hint of savory spice. BIN#2008

Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault // Domaine La Bernarde [75]
Cotes de Provence, France 2025

A beautiful and renowend estate, La Bernarde produces perfect roses. This vintage contains notes of blood orange, lavendar, and easy red currants.

Cabernet Franc // Domaine Fabrice Gasnier "Le Rosé" [65]
Chinon, Loire Valley, France 2025

Five-generation biodynamic estate in Chinon. Dry and precise with red currant, wild strawberry, and the cool herbal lift that defines Loire Cabernet Franc. BIN#2026

Niellucciu, Sciaccarellu // Domaine Giacometti [75]
'Cru des Agriate' Patrimonio, Sardinia, France 2024

The Giacometti family moved to the Agriates Desert in 1987, taking over vines planted in 1966.
Pomegranate-tinged, remarkably fresh and mineral, with a focused granite-filtered quality unlike any Provençal rosé.

Montepulciano // Tiberio [88]
Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo, Italy 2025

Cerasuolo is Italy's most serious rose appellation, made exclusively from Montepulciano grown on limestone hillsides in the shadow of the Appennines. Has notes of rose petal & strawberry with mineral precision BIN#1012

SKIN CONTACT

These biodynamic sippers are mascerated on the skins delivering complexity & retaining freshness

Sémillon // Oenogenesis "Mataroa Gold" [72]
Drama, Greece 2024

A brief stint on the skins gives it texture and depth: ripe peach, apricot, and citrus peel with a waxy, mineral palate and a long, savory finish. BIN #2027

Traminer // Hanna Glatzer "Weiss" [83]
Carnuntum, Austria 2022

Traminer, the ancient ancestor of Gewürztraminer, gets extended skin contact here, yielding a hazy amber wine with jasmine, candied mandarin, tropical fruit, and a fine, mineral finish. Unfined, unfiltered, low sulfur. BIN# 2037

Muscat of Alexandria // Garalis "Terra Ambera Amphora" [88]
Lemnos, Greece 2022

An expressive wine from a grape known for its aromatic & vibrant personality. Aged in amphora, it showcases the flavors of this Greek island with orange blossom, ripe apricots & a subtle hint of honey. BIN #2028

Trebbiano Spoletino // Lorenzo Mattoni [85]
Umbria, Italy 2024

25 days of skin maceration in cement unlocks a deeper, more textural side of this ancient Umbrian grape: white flowers, roasted almonds, lemon zest, and spiced pear with vibrant acidity and a long, persistent finish. BIN# 1011

Fernão Pires, Vital, Malvasia-Rei + // Chinado [87]
Lisboa, Alcobaça, Portugal 2024

A field blend of indigenous Portuguese varieties from organic vineyards in Lisboa. Notes of tea leaf, lemongrass, stone fruit with a mineral finish.. BIN# 2001

SKIN CONTACT

These biodynamic sippers are mascerated on the skins delivering complexity & retaining freshness

Loureiro, Azal // Bojo de Luar "Lua Nona" [74]
Vinho Verde, Portugal 2024

Bottled unfiltered with ground chestnut flowers - an ancient monastic stabilizing technique that eliminates the need for sulfur. Deep amber, honeyed, and savory, with dried apricot, orange peel, chamomile, and a tannic, mineral finish.

Viognier // Loop de Loop "Wallflower Project" [96]
Columbia Gorge, Washington 2023

From a husband-and-wife winery on Underwood Mountain. Viognier's signature florals and stone fruit are here, grounded by a tannic backbone and real depth. Approachable and unconventional in equal measure. BIN #2004

Assyrtiko // Halkia Winery "Amber" [75]
Corinth, Nemea, Greece 2023

Amber-hued with extensive skin contact, revealing notes of baked citrus, honeycomb and wild herbs. The palate is full-bodied, aro- matic and satisfying. BIN #2038

Muscat // De Martino "Viejas Tinajas" [85]
Itata Valley, Chile 2022

From 100-year-old vines in the Itata Valley, one of Chile's oldest wine regions, fermented with native yeasts and macerated on the skins for five months in century-old clay tinajas (clay jars). Orange blossom, dried apricot, gingerbread, coriander, and a firm, textured finish. Unfiltered and unfined.. BIN #2036

WHITE

SIP WITH YOUR DIP

Light & fresh wines to kickoff your meal

Minutolo // Polvanera, Puglia IGT, Italy 2025 [68]

Long mistaken for Fiano and labeled as such for decades, Minutolo was only confirmed as its own distinct Puglian grape in recent years. Organically farmed, aged in a cellar dug seven meters into limestone rock in Gioia del Colle. White flowers, peach, bergamot, and a fresh saline finish. BIN# 2009

Alvarinho // Quinta do Regueiro "Secreto" [70]
Vinho Verde, Portugal 2025

One of the Minho's most respected Alvarinho producers since 1988. Intensely mineral with candied orange peel, bright citrus, and a clean, bright acidity. BIN# 2002

Welschriesling // Hanna Glatzer [83]
Carnuntum, Austria 2023

Welschriesling, unrelated to Germanic Riesling, is a variety in its own right grown in Carnuntum's ancient Roman wine country. Unfiltered, six months on lees, no sulfur during aging. Citrus, white flowers, and bright acidity. BIN# 2022

Moschofilero // Troupis "Holy Mania" [68]
Mantineia, Greece 2024

From high-altitude vineyards on the Arcadian plateau, this organic wine undergoes wild fermentation in a concrete egg and is bottled unfined and unfiltered. Stone fruit, jasmine, and citrus peel with vibrant acidity. BIN# 2010

Sauvignon Blanc // Domaine Valéry Renaudat "Les Lignis" [73]
Loire Valley, France 2024

Reuilly is Sancerre's quieter neighbor: same Kimmeridgian limestone soils, fraction of the fame. This wine is taut and citrus-driven with grapefruit, green apple, and white flowers, finishing with a clean saline snap. BIN# 2023

WHITE

ISLANDS IN THE STREAM

Wines derived from islands overseas featuring coastal minerality

Xynisteri // Makarounas Winery "Aerides" [68]
Paphos, Cyprus 2023

Tropical & rich with notes of citrus blossoms & cooked pear with a delicate acitidy & a long, complex finish. BIN #2033

Catarratto // Feudo Montoni [73]
Sicily, Italy 2024

Savory & tangy with notes of crunchy golden apples, grape fruit & thyme. A strong mineral backbone leads the wine & finishes fresh & tart. BIN #2030

Assyrtiko // Hatzidakis "Nykteri" [136]
Santorini, Greece 2022

Over 100 year old Assyrtiko vines are woven in the traditional Santorini "kouloura" to protect from strong wind gusts common on the island. Once picked, the juice sees full neutral oak treatment resulting in a super elegant style that is incredibly ageworthy & on par with premier cru Burgundy. BIN #2016

Vermentino // Mora e Memo "Tino" [62]
Sardinia, Italy 2024

From the sun-drenched hills of southern Sardinia, this Vermentino bursts with sea breeze, wild herbs, and white flowers. Named "Tino" after the island's nickname, it's a bright, saline wine that perfectly captures Sardinia's Mediterranean spirit.BIN #2012

Malvasia Volcánica // Los Bermejos, Lanzarote [87]
Canary Islands, Spain 2025

Malvasía Volcánica is indigenous to the Canaries and found nowhere else. Lime, pear, white flowers, and a striking volcanic minerality that no mainland wine can replicate. BIN #1010

WHITE

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Unexpected wines listed from lightest to fullest

Debina // Domaine Glinavos "Protos Inos" [78]
Zitsa, Epirus, Greece 2020

Zitsa is tucked into the mountains of Epirus where Lord Byron slept in the local monastery and was so taken with the village he wrote it into Childe Harold's Pilgrimage. Debina thrives in this cool, high-altitude terrain: green apple, nectarine, citrus blossom, raw almond, bright acidity and a clean mineral finish. BIN# 2005

Viognier // The Foundry, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2022 [68]

Benchmark South African Viognier: perfumed with stone fruit & blossom, but held in check by freshness and savory lift. Silky yet precise. BIN# 2031

Trebbiano, Ansonica + // Ampeleia "Bianco di Ampeleia" [84]
Toscana IGT, Italy 2023

A co-planted field blend from Elisabetta Foradori's biodynamic Maremma estate. Tangerine peel, quince, white peach, and mint with a muscular, almost tannic structure unusual for a white and bright coastal freshness throughout. BIN# 2017

Godello // Ladeiras do Xil "Branco de Santa Cruz" Valeorras
Galicia, Spain 2020 [158]

From legendary winemaker Telmo Rodriguez comes this limited production, voluminous white wine with notes of aromatic herbwhite flowers, and peaches. Certified organic. BIN #2032

WHITE

KEEPIN' IT CLASSIC

Familiar favorites listed from lightest to fullest bodied

Pinot Grigio // J. Hofstatter, Alto Adige, Italy 2024 [65]

Light-bodied and crisp, this wine delivers fine lemon zest, green pear, and a whisper of alpine stone. Cool-climate finesse with zippy freshness and a clean, lingering finish. BIN #2025

Garganega // Marissa Allegrini, Peaks & Valleys "Castelcerino" Soave Classico, Veneto, Italy 2024 [63]

Sleek & mineral-driven Soave from high-altitude Castelcerino vineyards. Crisp pear, lemon zest, and almond blossom glide over a stony, refreshing finish. BIN# 2003

Chardonnay // Jean-Marc Brocard "Saint Claire" Chablis, Burgundy, France 2024 [74]

Zesty, crunchy & laden with bright acidity, Brocard's "Saint Claire" cuvée from a mix of old & young vines is elegant while remaining precise & versatile. BIN #2029

Viognier // Domaine Gassier "Embruns de Viognier" IGP Gard, France 2024 [72]

Certified regenerative vines overlooking the Camargue marshes. Apricot, tangerine, nectarine, and a vivid citrus edge from high-limestone soils. BIN#2021

Riesling // A. Christmann "Gimmeldinger Kapellenberg" VDP Erste Lage, Pfalz, Germany 2022 [125]

The Kapellenberg, the coolest site in the Christmann estate, produces a dry Riesling with a distinctly focused character: citrus zest, peach skin, fine herb notes, and a chalky, salty minerality. Lean, precise, and built to age. BIN# 2013

WHITE

MORE OF THE CLASSICS

Familiar favorites listed from lightest to fullest bodied

Arneis // Giovanni Almondo "Bricco delle Ciliegie" [85]
Roero, Piedmont, Italy 2024

Named for the cherry orchard this hilltop once was. Nearly extinct until the 1980s, Arneis delivers white peach, green almond, and chalky minerality. BIN #2015

Chenin Blanc // Angus Paul "Fantamtango" [75]
Stellenbosch, South Africa 2023

Energetic and expressive Chenin with ripe pear, quince, and citrus peel layered over a taut mineral core. Made by Angus Paul, a new-generation Stellenbosch winemaker focused on freshness and site expression. BIN #2019

Chardonnay // Jérôme Fornerot "Champ Tirant" [155]
Saint-Aubin, Burgundy, France 2023

A refined Chardonnay with notes of lemon zest, white flowers, & brioche. Bright acidity & a mineral finish highlight the precision of Saint-Aubin. Jérôme Fornerots focuses on organic farming & minimal intervention. BIN #2014

Chardonnay // Sylvain Pataille [195]
Marsannay, Burgundy, France 2022

A pioneer in Marsannay, Pataille is reviving its vineyards with sus tainable & biodynamic practices to push the limits of Burgundy winemaking. Vibrant & complex with ripe orchard fruit, toasted almond, & a hint of smoke. Full-bodied with balanced acidity & a lingering finish. BIN #2018

CHILLED RED

KEEPIN' IT CHILL

Chilled red wines for warmer days on the patio or just a good time

Trepat // Succés Vinícola "La Cuca de Llum" [75]
Conca de Barberà, Catalonia, Spain 2025

Named for the fireflies Albert and Mariona spotted in the vineyard. Think Spanish Beaujolais: red cherry, raspberry, anise, and a peppery spice, with light body, bright acidity, and a long mineral finish. BIN #2020

Sangiovese, Malvasia // Buccia Nera 'Rossorelativo' [63]
Tuscany, Italy, 2024

A family run vineyard that is finally releasing their Summer table wine. Designed intently as a chilled red with notes of fresh strawberry, violets & a tangy high acid finish. BIN #1013

Gamay // Domaine Sauvète "Les Gravouilles" [78]
Touraine, Loire Valley, France 2023

Organically farmed since the estate was founded in 1905, this is a Loire take on the grape: strawberry, red currant, and fresh cherry with elegant floral lift, silky tannins, and the easy, food-friendly freshness that begs to be served with a chill. BIN #2007

Cinsault + // A.A. Badenhorst "Papegaai" [69]
Swartland, South Africa 2025

Adi Badenhorst blends over twenty varieties from his family's historic Kalmoesfontein farm, with the exact mix changing every vintage by design. A snapshot of the farm, this wine is juicy and fruit-forward with strawberry, red cherry, and a smoky, savory edge. Light on its feet and built to be enjoyed with a chill.
BIN# 2040

RED

CURIOUS DETOURS

Interesting and lifted reds that pair well with a variety of dishes, listed from light to medium-bodied.

Karasakiz, Cabernet Sauvignon // Pasaeli "House Red" [52]
Marmara, Turkey 2023

A fresh, fruit-forward ode to the bistros of Istanbul & beyond. Light-bodied despite the cabernet in the blend! BIN #5020

Mandilaria// Markogianni's Winery "Amphora" [68]
Lykaeon, Peloponnese, Greece 2022

Earthy and intriguing, Mandilaria is an indigeneous grape in Greece's Peloponnese. Layers of dark bramble fruit, warm spice & a pleasantly rugged texture meet cool-climate freshness & mineral fluency. BIN# 5004

Pinot Noir // Faiveley "Champ Lalot" [134]
Givry, Burgundy, France 2023

Smooth and elegant. Partial whole cluster fermentation makes for a dynamic wine with floral notes & jammy red fruits. BIN #5003

Liatiko // Iliana Malihin, Crete, Greece 2024 [99]

From vineyards of ungrafted bush vines on the island of Crete, this Liatiko is a native grape that is bottled without fining or filtration. BIN #5012

Zinfandel // Sandlands, Lodi, California 2022 [88]

From heritage vines in Lodi, this Zinfandel is fresh & vibrant. Brambly red fruit, pepper, & bright acidity showcase the grape in a lighter, pure style. BIN# 5027

RED

CURIOUS DETOURS

Interesting and lifted reds that pair well with a variety of dishes, listed from light to medium-bodied.

Zweigelt // Nibiru "Oida!" [1 LITER] [67]
Niederosterreich, Austria NV

'Oida!' is slang for 'Hey!' in this Austrian region. This joyful, medium, natural red blend is earthy with notes of clove & blueberry. BIN #5029

Pinot Noir // Dunites "Chêne Vineyard" [150]
San Luis Obispo Coast, California 2024

Coastal Pinot with effortless charm. Juicy red cherry, wild strawberry, and a whisper of salty sea air. Light on its feet and silky, a beach-cool Pinot with serious finesse. BIN #5006

Bekari, Vlahiko // Domaine Glinavos "Vlahiko" [78]
Ioannina, Greece 2020

Tart pomegranates and ripe tannins are predominant in this dynamic red from north-ish Greece. A fun option for bolder pinot noir or frappato lovers. BIN #5028

Trousseau // Jérôme Arnoux "Exception" [88]
Arbois, Jura, France 2022

After 12 months in barrel, this wine is intensely red fruited, with notes of red cherry, redcurrant & strawberry. Elegant finish. BIN #5032

Cinsault // Natte Valleij, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2023 [78]

From some of the Cape's oldest Cinsault parcels, this light-bodied red is juicy and aromatic with red cherry, rose petal, & a touch of spice. BIN# 5024

RED

ANYTHING BUT MID

Medium-bodied wines with not-too-intense tannins. Just right, listed from medium to full-bodied.

Primitivo // Fatalone "Teres" [84]
Puglia, Italy 2025

A unique, lighter-bodied red with cult-favorite status. Made from racemi, thin-skinned second budding clusters of vine. Offers remarkable purity of fruit, a lively & energetic palate and mouthwatering, fresh finish. BIN #5010

Merlot // Keermont, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2020 [85]

Elegant, mountain-grown Merlot with dark plum, cassis, & graphite minerality. Fine tannins give depth & structure without heaviness. BIN# 5035

Malbec // Cosse et Maisonneuve "Le Combal" [70]
Cahors, France 2020

From 40-year-old vines rooted in limestone, this wine shows the darker, more soulful side of Malbec, layered with black fruit, spice, and a touch of graphite. BIN #5033

Alicante Bouschet, Touriga Nacional, Baga // Mainova [78]
Alentejo, Portugal 2022

Dark cherry, ripe berry, and a menthol lift, with round tannins, good freshness, and a long finish. Organic wine produced by a woman winemaker. BIN# 5002

Cabernet Franc, Arinarnoa // Domaine des Ouled Thaleb [70]
"MD Excellence Kinor" Zenata, Morocco 2019

Ouled Thaleb has made wine in Zenata's coastal clay-marl soils since 1923, and Morocco's Jewish community has been vinifying grapes here for over a thousand years. Blackberry, coffee, and a touch of vanilla with juicy, soft tannins. Kosher for Passover, non-mevushal. BIN# 5017

RED

ANYTHING BUT MID

Medium-bodied wines with not-too-intense tannins. Just right, listed from medium to full-bodied.

Sangiovese // Fattoria le Pupille Mortellino di Scansano [65]
Tuscany, Italy 2024

Bright and expressive, this coastal Tuscan red showcases Sangiovese with notes of ripe cherry, wild strawberry, and a touch of Mediterranean herbs. Fresh acidity and supple tannins carry through to a clean, sunlit finish with a hint of spice.
BIN #5037

Touriga Nacional, Trincadeira + // Esporão, Reserva [75]
Alentejo, Portugal 2022

Esporão's first and most iconic wine made from organically grown grapes. Rich yet balanced, with silky tannins & a finish that humswith warmth and depth. BIN #5011

Xinomavro // Domaine Tatsis [115]
Macedonia, Greece 2013

Aged to perfection, this 2013 is savory and soulful, with notes of dried cherry, tomato leaf, and spice. Silky yet structured, it delivers the elegance of old-world Greece. BIN# 5001

Nebbiolo // Guidobono "Rivadoro" Barbaresco [110]
Piedmont, Italy 2022

The Faccenda family's Guidobono estate spans prime hillside vineyards across Roero and Langhe. This is Nebbiolo at its most seductive: rose petal, tart cherry, dried violet, and licorice on the nose, with silky tannins, bright acidity, and a long, savory finish that makes it nearly impossible to put down.. BIN# 5009

RED

ROBUST REDS

Robust reds with fuller bodies and more intense structure.

Touriga Nacional + // Bardino, Douro, Portugal 2021 [74]

Deep and brooding with dark cherry, dried violet, and a whisper of graphite. Firm tannins and bright acidity give this Douro red a powerful yet elegant structure – classic mountain-grown Portugal. BIN #5015

Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot + // Noble Hill "Estate Reserve" [79]
Simonsberg, Paarl, South Africa 2021

From the granite slopes of Simonsberg, bold yet elegant Bordeaux-style red captures the cool precision of mountain-grown fruit. BIN #5022.

Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot + // Giovanni Chiappini [110]
"Felciaino" Bolgheri Rosso, Tuscany, Italy 2022

Bolgheri elegance with a wild-coast edge: dark plum, blackberry, and cedar wrapped in supple tannins. Organic farming & sandy soils lend lift and freshness to this polished yet energetic Super-Tuscan blend.. BIN# 5036

Blaufrankisch // Red Tail Ridge "Estate Vineyard" [80]
Finger Lakes, NY 2022

A bold yet elegant expression from the cool-climate Finger Lakes, offering deep, structured flavors. Dark cherry, blackberry & earthy spice notes with bright acidity & fine tannins. BIN #5007

Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon // Château Fontenil [118]
Fronsac, Bordeaux, France 2015

Michel Rolland's own estate in Fronsac, the 2015 is the best Fontenil ever produced: dark cherry, cassis, truffle, licorice, and lavender with silky tannins and a long, resonant finish. Drinking beautifully now. Kosher for Passover, non-mevushal. BIN# 5008

RED

CRAVING STRUCTURE

Robust reds with fuller bodies and more intense structure.

Syrah // Alain Graillot + Ouled Thaleb "Syrocco" [62]
Zenata, Morocco 2022

A partnership between a legendary Rhone producer and an established Moroccan winery making true, almost-full-bodied Syrah. Reminiscent of an old-world style. BIN #5005

Sagrantino // Arnaldo Caprai, Montefalco Rosso [78]
Umbria, Italy 2021

Bold Umbrian energy with a polished edge and notes of dark cherry, blackberry, warm spice wrapped in firm but friendly structure. Rich and savory, this Sagrantino knows how to flex without overwhelming. BIN #5025

Grenache + // Domaine de Ferrand Châteauneuf-du-Pape [146]
Rhone Valley, France 2023

Macerated berries, leather, and violets lead to a full-bodied, lushly textured wine with fine, integrated tannins with an elegant finish. BIN #5026

Syrah // DuMol "Wild Mountainside", Russian River Valley [178]
California 2022

World class syrah from the west coast, with notes of violets, black pepper, and deep, inky dark fruit aromas. Intense and mouth-filling with a long, elegant finish. BIN #5023
